Please note film submissions should be in DVD format. It is not possible for us to return films, however they can be picked up from LLAMFF in person after the festival. By submitting a film you are consenting to the showing of the film at LLAMFF if the organisation see fit. LLAMFF cannot be held responsible for any damage or loss sustained to the film while in transit to LLAMFF or while in their possession. Films should preferably be under 60 minutes but we will consider anything of quality or distinction. The closing date for entries to the 2010 festival is January 31st 2010.
